Healthcare: Ask the Experts

With six months to go in the elections, everyone is focused on the question: How will health care reform impact small and medium businesses?

On April 16, in conjunction with America's Small Business Summit, the U.S. Chamber's Council on Small Business will host a live Web cast featuring Humphrey Taylor, chairman of the Harris Poll, and often-quoted expert and author on health care reform. Mr. Taylor will be joined by representatives from each of the three presidential candidates, and together they will provide insight on the health care landscape, proposed changes, and how they might impact your business.

The panelists will be answering questions--and that is where you come in. If you have a question on how the candidates' health care proposals may affect your business, you can send it to the U.S. Chamber in three ways:

- Post your question in a comment below.
 - E-mail the question or the link to a YouTube video question to webmaster@uschamber.com.
 - Call in with your question to 202-887-3439.
- Then, be sure to watch online on April 16th.
